Multiple Lucky's Market locations have placed re-orders

Rockledge, FL September 25, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Kona Gold Solutions, Inc. (OTC Pink: KGKG), a hemp lifestyle brand of exclusivity and status, has announced its popular hemp infused energy drinks are now available at Lucky's Market in Oakland Park in South Florida. This marks the seventh Lucky's Market in Florida where Kona Gold's hemp infused energy drinks are now available. Lucky's Market has been key for the company as they expand its product offering throughout the state of Florida.

Last month, Kona Gold hemp infused energy drinks were picked up by two Lucky's Markets in South Florida, the Coral Springs and Plantation locations. These stores have already sold through their initial order and have placed and taken delivery of additional orders.

"Lucky's Market has given us the opportunity to expand our reach throughout Florida and the re-orders from multiple locations is evident that our hemp energy drinks are being well received," stated Robert Clark, CEO of Kona Gold Solutions, Inc. "As we continue building our relationship with Lucky's Market, continue our involvement in their events, and have additional sampling days, our momentum to create brand awareness will grow exponentially in these areas, creating additional opportunities in those markets."

Clark continued, "As awareness of the benefits of hemp and the popularity of hemp based products continues to grow, our partnership with Elev8 Brands (OTC Pink: VATE) has allowed the companies to coordinate efforts with market expansion, which has proved beneficial for both companies."

Lucky's Market was started in 2003 by two chefs, Trish and Bo Sharon, when they bought a convenience store in Boulder, Colo. The Sharons shared a vision of creating a grocery store where food lovers like themselves would want to shop, with quality products sold at affordable prices with genuine personal service. Today, those goals are the hallmarks of the Lucky's style.
